Rugby rises

Name: Rose

“On 27 September, England’s Red Roses won the Women’s Rugby World Cup at the Allianz Stadium in front of a record-breaking crowd of 81,885 fans. They beat Canada 33-13, securing their record streak of 33 wins in a row. Both England and Canada have played exceptionally well this World Cup. While the Canadian backs were resilient and strong, the forwards were unable to match the power of the England scrum, which helped to lay the platform for a thrilling victory for England.

I was one of the lucky people to watch the match live at the Allianz Stadium and think of it as one of the best days of my life. The crowd was buzzing with energy and the fact that, on that day, we broke rugby records is incredible; it gave me a sense of everlasting joy. It was a dreamy day and the atmosphere at Allianz was wild with love and support for women’s rugby. I’m sure many people who were there would give anything to relive it.”

TEACHER OF THE WEEK

Teacher's name:

Mr Orpin

School: St Michael's Prep School, Otford, England

“Mr Orpin teaches maths and French but also runs our Debating Club. He tells us about current affairs and gets us thinking about many topics and different points of view. For example, he knows I love dogs so when we debated cats vs dogs he put me on team cat, which challenged me to think differently. We’ve also debated things like whether people should have real or fake Christmas trees and if children should learn at school or at home. He’s super supportive and we’re very lucky to have him.” Amelie

If we pick your teacher as Teacher of the Week, we’ll send your school three free issues of The Week Junior. Send your nominations, along with a picture of your teacher and your school’s full name and address, to hello@theweekjunior.co.uk

JOKE OF THE WEEK

“What is the scariest plant in the forest?
Bam-BOO!”

CHARITY OF THE WEEK

Kids for Kids

The charity Kids for Kids is raising money to support children in Darfur, Sudan, who don’t have enough food because of a war in the area. This Christmas, you can choose a gift to help a child in Darfur – like food to eat, seeds to plant or a goat for milk. To find out more and how to help, ask an adult to visit kidsforkids.org.uk

GET INVOLVED

Draw a festive cover

Have you sent us your artwork for this year’s The Week Junior Christmas cover competition? The deadline is 11.59pm on 2 November. We’re looking for a bright, colourful and festive design on the theme of Peace on Earth for the cover of our Christmas issue, coming out on 18 December. Your picture could be a symbol of peace and love, a scene of friendship, or it could show togetherness at Christmas – or anything else you want to paint and draw. To find out more and download a printable template, ask an adult to visit theweekjunior.co.uk/cover25

Henry won the 2024 competition.

Plastic FREE

The Week Junior is delivered without a wrapper. This decision was made in response to requests from our readers who wanted us to reduce waste. Since removing the wrap in 2018 we have saved our planet from more than 20 tonnes of plastic and made your magazine 100% recyclable. Very occasionally, magazines are damaged in the post. If you are dissatisfied with the condition of your copy, please contact support@mymagazine.co.uk to request a replacement.

Please include your full name and address so that we can send you a Roving Reporter badge if your contribution makes it onto the page. We will only use the details you provide to arrange delivery of badges, and we will not share them with anyone else. By submitting your reports and pictures, you give consent to The Week Junior to print them in magazine and digital editions, and mention on our podcast. We reserve the right to edit contributions for length, accuracy and suitability. Ensure you have your parent/guardian's permission before sending anything to us.
